Downsizing Policies ~

Tongue Barbell Downsize Policy

On piercings such as the tongue which have a tendency to swell during initial healing, we will insert a barbell that has some extra length on the post for your safety and comfort. Once your piercing has healed you may find that the barbell post looks or feels too long.

When you purchase a new barbell (post and two balls) at Rings of Desire and have us insert it into a new tongue piercing you can return here after the piercing is healed, and/or the swelling has subsided (minimum of 2 weeks-maximum of 8 weeks) you must have your receipt along with your copy of the downsize policy, and we will provide you with a shorter replacement post (of the same gauge as your initial jewelry) for $10.00 * (for 14 gauge.)

You get to keep the original post. There is no charge for us to help you insert the shorter post.

Out-of-towners may purchase their shorter post at the time of the piercing, if they so desire.

This policy does not apply to balls.

*Cost is $11.00 for 12 gauge, and $12.00 for 10 gauge.

Labret Stud Downsize Policy

On piercings such as the lip which have a tendency to swell during initial healing, we will insert a labret stud that has some extra length on the post for your safety and comfort. Once your piercing has healed you may find that the post looks or feels too long.
